

8. If none of what you have been researching interests you for a paper/product, what other content areas would you want to explore?

9. If possible, list one or two possible thesis statements for a possible paper and as many major supports for each as you can.

10. What are your concerns at this point in your research?